

MALALA QUOTES

(Cut the quotes into strips of paper and distribute one quote to each small group.)

In some parts of the world, students are going to school every day. It's their normal life. But in other part of the world, we are starving for education... it's like a precious gift. It's like a diamond.

I speak not for myself but for those without voice... those who have fought for their rights... their right to live in peace, their right to be treated with dignity, their right to equality of opportunity, their right to be educated.

When the whole world is silent, even one voice becomes powerful.

I think life is always dangerous. Some people get afraid of it. Some people don't go forward. But some people, if they want to achieve their goal, they have to go. They have to move...

Let us remember: One book, one pen, one child, and one teacher can change the world.

I raise up my voice, not so I can shout but so that those without a voice can be heard...we cannot succeed when half of us are held back.

I don't want revenge on the Taliban; I want education for sons and daughters of the Taliban.

I was a girl in a land where rifles are fired in celebration of a son, while daughters are hidden away behind a curtain, their role in life simply to prepare food and give birth to children.

They cannot stop me. I will get my education, if it is in [the] home, school or anyplace.

I have the right of education. I have the right to play. I have the right to sing. I have the right to talk. I have the right to go to market. I have the right to speak up.

I think that the best way to solve problems and to fight is through dialogue, is through [a] peaceful way, but for me the best way to fight against terrorism and extremism is just simple thing: educate the next generation.
